and Agriculture Departments are treated as outside the cadre of Deputy Commissioners, the officers selected for these appointments have, in Government Order, No. 6607-56/G.M. 365-17-1, dated the 19th November 1917, been declared entitled to the promotion ordinarily due to them in their proper grades either permanent, sub protem, or acting. While therefore their places in respect of their permanent appointments in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners may be filled up provisionally (as ordered in the same Government Order and as admissible under Article 60 of the Mysore Service Regulations), or temporarily, the rules do not contemplate more than one officer being promoted in a temporary vacancy. Mr. Ramaswamiah's temporary promotion to the first class of Deputy Commissioners in consequence of Mr. Aravamudu Ayyangar's absence on privilege leave has to be admitted under the Government Order of 19-11-1917. But as this temporary promotion is against a temporary vacancy in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners, another officer in the cadre cannot at the same time be also temporarily promoted. The promotion of of Mr. Venkat Rau as first class Deputy Commissioner is therefore not admissible and the question of promoting Messrs D'Souza and Zahiruddin Mecci temporarily to the first class does not therefore arise.

Ag appointments in the Dy Comms grade.

Under the Go of 19th Nov. 1917, the Rev Secy and Secy E&A are to draw their grade pay plus a local allowance and are entitled to the promotions due to them in their proper places in the Dy Comms cadre, whether permanent, temporary Sub proforma or ag.

2) The question for consideration is whether when these officers are permitted to draw acting allowances in temporary vacancies in the regular line, officers provincially appointed in their places can also be temporarily promoted, under the terms of the order above referred to.

3) In the case of the chief Secy whose pay has been fixed at 1200+200, it may be held that he has no connection with his appointment in the regular line as contemplated in art 60 M.S.R, & so is eligible for the grant of promotion, whether temporary or otherwise, to the officer provincially appointed in his stead, in the usual course, so during the tenure of the Special appointment may be admitted.

4) As regards the Rev Secy and Secy E&A, however, temporary promotion, to which they are declared entitled cannot be considered to be available for being given also to the officers provincially appointed in

I do not think the view is logically correct. The Rev Secy & Secy Ext are permanent appointments, the pay of which is not fixed like that of the Ch. Secy, but varies with the equivalent pay of the officer holding the appointment in another cadre. When this pay increases temporarily their stead, for suspension of him, and filling up of the place in the regular line thereby permissible under art 60 M-SR. Can have reference only to the appointments held by them substantively, and the grant of temporary promotion in other vacancies which in rules of the cadre is not specifically covered by the Govt Ord. 11.17.

5) If it is the intention that the officer permanently appointed in the regular line should not be deprived of the benefit of the temporary promotion accruing thereto, in the normal course, notwithstanding the fact that they are entitled thereto, the point has to be made clear.

This is only so in a literal sense, the spirit of the arrangement being otherwise

CS 4/17

I do not think the proposal involves the creation of additional appointments: it does however involve the acting promotion of 'two' officers in one vacancy, the two officers working in two different departments. This is doubtless an anomaly but it is the result of the arrangement under which the Secretaries Rev and Ecad A are seconded in the list of Dy Comrs and accord the emoluments admissible according to that list while employed in the Sects. According to this arrangement when a vacancy permitting of acting or substantive appointment arises in the list of Dy Cs the Sec Rev or Ecad A has to be appointed to the vacancy of his place in that list entitles him to this promotion and the officer actually working as a Dy C. Senior in the list has also to be appointed. When a vacancy occurs among Dy Cs it is not fair to deprive the ~~benefit~~ officers actually working as Dy Cs ~~(illegible)~~ the benefit of it: if anything their claim to it is stronger than that of an officer only seconded in the list of

Dy Cr.

There are two Solutions to remove this anomaly. (1) Separate pay may be fixed for the appointments of the two Secretaries. or (2) the two Secretaries may be treated as additional Dy Comm^rs and the no of Dy Cr^s raised accordingly. The former arrangement may not be convenient as it would interfere with the interchange of Officers bet^n the Sects and the Rev Dept. The Second alternative presents no such difficulty and the necessary Sects allowance may be attached to the appointments of Secretaries Rev & C & A. According to this alternative these officers would be considered as Dy Cr^s even while employed in the Sects and borne on the list of such officers & when a vacancy of a Dy Cr. of the 1st or 2nd Class occurs only one Series of arrangements would be made irrespective of the fact whether the Officers concerned in the arrangements

I believe the alternative was not adopted because it may be sometimes necessary to select Secretaries from other than the Revenue Dept as for instance when Mr D. N. Rao was taken from the Govt Dept
